

“Workplace Harassment: What Will Your Leaders Do?” Webinar

Thursday, October 3, 2019
10:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Program Overview:

Workplace harassment comes in many forms – sexual harassment, hostile work environment and retaliation just to name a few. Do you know what your managers would do if they faced harassment behavior in their department or if they suspected this behavior of a colleague? This webinar will help you to ensure your leaders recognize signs of workplace harassment, and know their responsibility and how to respond appropriately to an employee who raises a concern of this type.

Learning Objectives:

At the completion of this webinar, participants will be able to:

- Outline the role of the front-line leader in identifying and addressing harassment behavior;
- Recall what managers should say when a harassment allegation is made to them;
- Establish what’s next if you get a formal employee complaint; and
- Detail how to handle escalating a whistleblower allegation.

Key Topics:

- Types of harassment
- Management’s responsibility
- HR’s responsibility
- Investigation options
- Whistleblower allegations

Target Audience:

This session is recommended for human resource leaders or individuals with accountability for employment record creation and maintenance
