

“Using Audit Results to Your Advantage” Webinar #T5043

Tuesday, April 24, 2018
1:30 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Program Overview:

In today’s healthcare landscape getting audited is inevitable. It’s no longer a matter of if you will be audited, it’s when will you be audited and what liability may result. During this webinar we review the various types of audits, such as focused or targeted reviews and random reviews. We will also review some actionable tools that you can employ at your organization to help you glean useful information from both internal and external audits. We will close by discussing appeal options for disagreements with external payer audits, promoting a compliance atmosphere, and incorporating the information gleaned from audits into day-to-day operations.

Learning Objectives:

At the completion of this webinar, participants will be able to:

1. Define the term “audit”;
2. Identify several types of audits;
3. Discuss key focus areas;
4. Determine the need for appeal;
5. Identify roles and responsibilities;
6. Evaluate and implement audit results; and
7. Prepare action and compliance plans.

Target Audience:

Hospital and nursing home compliance officers, administrators, COOs, medical staff, medical coders, medical billers, coding consultants, medical coding auditors, practice managers, office managers, billing managers, and others involved in the revenue cycle management process at healthcare institutions.
